SIMHA LAW

NANI PALKHIVALA ARBITRATION CENTRE

The Nani Palkhivala Arbitration Centre (NPAC) is a non-profit organization established in 2005 under the Indian Companies Act to promote institutional arbitration and offer services related to mediation, conciliation, and arbitration. This is an offshoot of the Palkhivala Foundation, a Trust formed by a few like-minded individuals, to promote the values cherished by Mr. Palkhivala, the great jurist and visionary for the well-being of our society. NPAC is one of the few recognized institutions for institutional arbitration in India.

Given the prominence it has had in the field of arbitration and the wealth of experience it has accumulated so far, NPAC seeks to create a new eco system for conducting timely and cost-effective arbitration in India by not only creating world class facilities to conduct arbitration proceedings, but also building up the numbers of expert arbitrators.
